

To whom it may concern,
I'm writing to let you know that I would like to see the WI no-call list remain just as it is. Since the start of the list, I have had next to no calls, except from charitable organizations. I feel it is my right to say that I don't want these calls coming into my home. I should have the final say! I realize these businesses have a right to solicit, but if I don't want inconvenient, bothersome, and disturbing phone calls, they need to find another way to solicit customers. They can try the mail or TV. If I want a product I will go looking for it. I don't want someone trying to sell me siding for my brand new home when I'm breastfeeding my 5 mo. old child. This is a matter that should be left up to the states to decide how to handle and if 80% of WI residents want this law, then we should be allowed to keep it.

Thank you!
